

Come help us celebrate
Earth Day
Saturday, April 17

at the Sierra Vista Farmers Market

9 am to 3 pm
On NW Corner of Carmichael & Wilcox

Learn more about this special spot on the planet and how you can help take care of it
Dress like Your Favorite Local Species Contest with prizes for adults & kids.

Find out about hiking, biking, birding, star-gazing, gardening & rain water harvesting.

Pet snakes & creepy crawlies from Gray Hawk Nature Center. See Smokey the Bear.
Watch the sun cook a pot roast or bake bread! Get started solar cooking with sun ovens & solar cookbooks. Recycle: Bring aluminum cans for schools collection.

Find out about green building, solar power and motorized biking -150mpg & 0 emissions.

Hands on worm composting with Sierra Vista's Worm Guy. Native Plants galore!
Fun for the whole family with over 100 educational & market food & craft vendors

Solar Powered music by Cochise County Youth Orchestra, Broken Strings Band, Little Homestead, teen champion fiddlers, Simmons Family Band & Arthritis Bros.

Great Food: Cowboy BBQ & Chili, burgers, burritos, vegetarian options

Find out how to raise your own food and poultry with organic ag displays & baby farm animals, goat milking, spinning & weaving demos.

Farmers market: Bring a cooler for fresh produce & healthy meats, free range eggs. Honey, preserves, home-made baked goods, fair-trade coffee, nuts, desert health foods. Handmade soaps, natural body care & healthy pet products. Seed and plant sales.

For more information contact valerie.mccaffrey@bajaaz.org or 378-2973
No farmers market on Thursday, April 15